Our Daily Prayers

Our community children spend approximately 45 hours per week with our area teachers and other employees at the North Miami School System. For that reason we are happy to announce a new section to our Newsletter.

Every month throughout the school year you will see one teacher/faculty from the elementary and one from the high school listed per week. Each day that week please lift the designated employee in prayer. Praying for the adults who influence our children will enable us to indirectly pray for the unnamed students as well.

During the weeks we also encourage you to pray for the school system as a whole.

1920 – 1940

These 20 years were the years between WWI and WWII. So many advances like lights, automobiles, tractors, gas cook stoves, indoor plumbing, radios, movie theaters, no wonder they called it “the roaring 20’s”.

As the 30’s came around, all the advancements were there, but no money. Stock market crash, failed banks, a massive flood in 1927, and a never ending drought throughout most of the country through the 30’s.

It does not seem that long ago to be history, but 1920 is coming up on 100 years. I was reading this book I picked up for $1.00 (paperback) from the library sale on Ft. Myers Beach. That is one thing that the island has - a new and very beautiful building for its library. A lot of my statistics are from this book.

1 – Prohibition

1920, the year started with the 18th amendment prohibiting the manufacturing, transporting, and the sale of alcoholic beverages. This amendment lasted until 1933. An overall impression was that prohibition had not worked well.

2 – Women’s Right to Vote – 19th amendment

3 – Automobiles

In 1920, 1 household in 3 possessed an automobile. By 1930 4 families in 5 owned one.

4 – Tractors

By 1920, Henry Ford had built 100,000 Fordson tractors, twice as many as the total number of tractors in use at that time. In fact, ¼ of the farm acreage had to be set aside to grow feed for the horses at that time.

5 – Electric Lights

It allowed you to start your work day earlier, read, or finish household chores with lights in the evening.

Electricity was the number one thing most people yearned for in that era.

The number one appliance they wanted was an iron so they did not have to stand next to a hot stove.

The order of succession was different for everyone, but the electrically powered radio and motion pictures had the greatest impact in the 20’s and 30’s.

6 – Self Service Grocery

You probably never thought much about this, but until 1916, the store owner got your goods off the shelf and bagged them on a counter. Clarence Sanders of Memphis, TN opened a self-serve grocery store. Named Piggly Wiggly Stores by 1920, the chain included 400 stores. By 1928, just before it was sold to Safeway and Kroger, the Piggly Wiggly chain reached 2700 stores.

7 – Healthy Diets

Before WWI, eating a lot was thought to be sensible, and being plump was regarded as a sign of good health as well as prosperity.

That all changed in the 20’s with the new dresses to make you look thin, as well as the men with tighter and more styled clothing.

So much could be included, but aren’t we lucky to have had all of those conveniences all of our lives – if you were born after 1940?

Camp Alexander Mack

Greetings from Camp Mack! We hope you have had a happy Groundhog Day.

Camp Mack staff have classic camp songs on their minds as they reflect on Pass it On and Peace Like a River in the attached February newsletter.

What a Wondrous Time is Spring—Gene has a great list of things you can do now to think spring at Camp Mack. His article ends with, "Camp Mack is a place where you can experience God's love in such a way that you can't help but Pass it On."

In Peace Like a River, Deanna speaks about the peace that can be found at camp. You will be pulled in by memories of camp and how "camp helps to touch those parts of our hearts—the parts seeking something different from what the world offers." Seek the peace that God has to offer.

The Sky is Falling! No, Henny Penny hasn't been to camp, but we have some stories about drop ceilings and lessons learned from them. Share your stories of learning with Galen as you may have a few that are similar in your life.

Eeeewwwwww.... What is our Program Director holding in her hand? Read the Power of Inquiry to find out her recent day with the Faith Christian Homeschool Co-op.

Our retreat guests have been treated to some delicious new recipes. Be sure to try out this one for Grasshopper Parfaits. I bet those Thin Mint Girl Scout cookies would make the perfect garnish.

Q: Maybe I'm just old-fashioned, but from time to time our church's music director introduces new songs into the service, and I don't care for them. I like the old hymns, and wish he'd just stick with them. Should I complain to our pastor?

A: I know this has been a controversial issue in many churches, and I don't pretend to have all the answers, especially since I'm not particularly musical! But we have a singing faith, and God has given us the gift of music to praise Him. The Psalmist declared, "With singing lips my mouth will praise you" (Psalm 63:5).

Instead of complaining to your pastor (or anyone else), I urge you to ask God to help you be grateful for all music that points us to God, new or old. No, you may not like some of it, but others do, and God can use it in their lives to encourage them and bring them closer to Christ. Remember: The old hymns you like were once new, and someone probably didn't like them, either!

Sometimes, I'm afraid, a hymn can become so familiar to us that we sing it without even thinking about the words. But this is wrong, because then our singing becomes empty and meaningless. Don't let this happen to you, but meditate on the words of the songs you sing, and even turn them into a prayer.

Your music director has probably been wise to introduce new songs slowly; completely changing everything all at once can be disruptive. Pray for him and encourage him, letting him know that you're grateful for his gifts. Yes, let him know you appreciate the old hymns, but support him also as he seeks to reach a new generation through music.
